

Andrew Painter Named to Loudoun Times-Mirror's 40 Under 40

The Firm is proud to announce that Andrew Painter has been included among Loudoun Times-Mirror 40 Under 40 Under 40 honorees. In its sixth year, the Loudoun Times-Mirror's 40 Under 40 awards recognized Loudoun's rising business and community leaders, honoring 40 bright stars under the age of 40. The selection committee, comprised of former 40 Under 40 honorees, received over 150 nominations for this year's class. The honorees were highlighted in a special section of the Times-Mirror September issue and were recognized at an awards banquet at Stone Tower Winery.

Andrew Painter is a shareholder and land use attorney at the Firm. He has cultivated a unique skill set of knowledge, relationships, and expertise that has allowed him to effectively represent clients in 16 Virginia localities from Arlington County to Loudoun County. Andrew has been deeply involved in a number of local government and community service activities across the region. He is also frequent moderator at numerous development industry panels where he serves as a thought leader on issues ranging from urban revitalization, to suburban growth, and community development. One of Andrew's most recent accomplishments is writing a book chronicling the history of the Virginia wine industry, Virginia Wine: Four Centuries of Change, which was published by George Mason University Press and distributed by the University of Virginia Press. His unique experience and role as a community leader earned him a place in Loudoun Times-Mirror 40 under 40. Congratulations, Andrew!
