

Minchew, J. Randall

Randy has been with WCL&W since 1998 and serves as Managing Shareholder of the firm's Loudoun Office. Primarily working in land use and zoning, he has successfully represented a number of clients in obtaining the necessary approvals for a variety of cases, including major residential, commercial, and mixed-use projects.

As a Leesburg resident, Randy has been deeply involved in a number of local government and community service activities in both Loudoun County and the Town of Leesburg. Randy is also a leader and Life Director of the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association, which was founded in part by his father, the late John R. Minchew, founder and President of the Minchew Corporation, a leading Northern Virginia homebuilder. Randy currently serves in the Virginia General Assembly representing the citizens of Loudoun, Clarke, and Frederick counties in the House of Delegates.
