

Chuck McWilliams Named Shareholder

December 2, 2016 – Arlington, VA. Walsh, Colucci, Lubeley & Walsh is pleased to announce that Charles E. McWilliams, Jr. has been named shareholder.

Chuck McWilliams joined the firm in 2012 after working with a boutique tax, trusts, estates, and business planning practice in Winchester, Virginia. Chuck brings incredible talent to the firm. He is both an attorney and a certified public accountant and recently earned an LL.M. in Taxation from Georgetown University. Chuck's practice focuses on complex estate transactional, and business planning for business owners, individuals, and families. He was recently named a 2017 "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers in Estate Planning & Probate. Chuck is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Lord Fairfax Community College Foundation, which supports continued growth and development in the communities of Frederick, Fauquier, and Page Counties, and throughout the Shenandoah Valley.

"Chuck is an outstanding attorney. He has earned his position as shareholder by demonstrating expertise in his field, by providing outstanding service to his clients, and through his commitment to the cities, towns, and communities where he lives and works" said Nan Walsh, Managing Shareholder. "We are fortunate and proud to have Chuck as a shareholder of our firm."
