

Coughlin, Michael J.

Michael, an experienced litigation attorney, leads the firm's Eminent Domain Practice Group. In eminent domain matters, Michael represents only property owners and businesses with just compensation and lost profit claims. He assists his eminent domain clients from the beginning of the condemnation process through trial, if necessary. His other litigation experience includes land use disputes with local governments, contract and administrative disputes with government agencies, easement and title disputes, and complex construction disputes. Michael regularly lectures on eminent domain and land use topics, and has been recognized as one of Virginia's "Rising Stars" in Virginia Lawyer magazine.
